It's a stifling hot day in the summer.
The Soccer World Cup has finally ended!

Boemba's house is as peaceful as it ever was.
"Pfooh!" Boemba sighs, and he lays down his head.

In the mean time, mysterious bulbs have landed in the garden.
The lazy cat Boemba is not aware of what is happening!

All of a sudden, the bulbs start shaking heftily...
It looks like they're gonna explode!

Witness the birth of a Wuppie!

In no time the entire garden is scattered with Wuppies.
They sing a song:
“We want Wuppieland! We desire Wuppieland!”

Boemba is startled and shouts:
“Say, what’s happening?”

The Wuppies sing horribly out of tune.
And the noise they make is deafening loud.
Even the neighbour cat Rixy wonders what is going on!

“Sssst,” Boemba says softly.
“Your singing sounds like katzenjammer!”

A sad Wuppie says:
“Now that the WC is over, Wuppieland no longer exists!”
“We are orphaned Wuppies, in search of a land to live in.”

“That’s terrible!” Boemba says sincerely.
Honorably he adds:
“I know of a land where all of you can live happily in peace.”

“This land is mine,” Boemba speaks proudly.
“You may stay here as long as you like.”
“On the condition that you don’t sing anymore!”

The Wuppies are very grateful for Boemba's offer.
Now they have a peaceful piece of land for themselves!

Boemba and the Wuppies happily play in the garden all summer long!
